Why did we wear a Christmas jumper and donate money every year to Hope in Sri Lanka?

- ▶ Ms Richardson is a trustee of a Christian charity called Hope in Sri Lanka. It was set up after the 2014 tsunami.

Hope in Sri Lanka is a Christian charity.

Our Charity Commission statement says

- To relieve sickness and financial hardship and to promote and preserve good health (particularly but not exclusively of children and families affected by the 2004 tsunami) by the provision of funds, goods or services of any kind, including through the provision of counselling and support in such parts of Sri Lanka or the world as the trustees from time to time may think fit.
- To advance the Christian faith in Sri Lanka and in other parts of the world as the trustees may from time to time think fit.

- ▶ The work of HOPE in Sri Lanka now continues in another children's home. Although this home is much closer to Colombo, it is another rural area. The children are sent here by Probation Services when they are orphaned, neglected or abused. The 80 children are cared for by Naomi and Ranga , a young couple with two children and assisted by care mothers. The home was the vision of a local pastor and his wife—Nelum and Premadassa.
- ▶ The Music and Drama therapy is very popular at this home. Nelum works as the translator for Keith and Pam as they meet with children individually and in groups. The children enjoy Bible stories and craft activities.
- ▶ Keith & Pam were able to buy Christmas gifts for all 80 children last week. The children enjoyed decorating bags and Naomi filled them with the goods bought. Each child received underwear and a set of clothes, toiletries and age appropriate gifts or toys for Christmas.
