Whole villages were flattened.

Fishing boats, which provide essential food supplies for local people here were washed ashore.

Communications were completely disrupted

Bus station in Galle, Sri Lanka

A photograph showing the aftermath of a train derailment in Sri Lanka. In the foreground, several Buddhist monks in maroon robes are walking. In the background, a red train car is derailed and tilted, surrounded by debris and people. The scene is set in a lush, green area.

1500 people died in a train derailed by the waves in Sri Lanka – it is the worst train disaster ever recorded.

HOPE IN SRI LANKA

Hope in Sri Lanka is a Christian charity.

Our Charity Commission statement says

- To relieve sickness and financial hardship and to promote and preserve good health (particularly but not exclusively of children and families affected by the 2004 tsunami) by the provision of funds, goods or services of any kind, including through the provision of counselling and support in such parts of Sri Lanka or the world as the trustees from time to time may think fit;
- To advance the Christian faith in Sri Lanka and in other parts of the world as the trustees may from time to time think fit;

Hope in Sri Lanka is a Christian charity.

Kalamusa Kadella

▣ KALAMUSA KADELLA HOME

- ▣ The children are sent here by Probation Services when they are orphaned, neglected or abused. The 90 plus children are cared for by Naomi and assisted by care mothers. The home was the vision of a local pastor and his wife—Nelum and Premadassa.
- ▣ The Music and Drama therapy is very popular at this home. Nelum works as the translator for Keith and Pam as they meet with children individually and in groups. The children enjoy Bible stories and craft activities.
